Q5: Identify Your Goal

one of the most effective decision making strategies is to keep an eye on your goal. This simply means identifying the purpose of your decision by asking yourself what exactly exactly it is the problem that need to be solved and why does this problem need to be solved step ② Gather information for weighing your option.

when making good decisions it is best to gather necessary information that is directly related to the problem.

Doing this will help you to better understand what needs to be done in solving the problem.

and will also help to generate ideas for a possible solution.

step ③ considers the consequences

This step can be just as important as step one because it will help you determine how your final decision will impact yourself and/or others involved.

in this step you will be asking yourself:

step (4) Make Your Decision
Now that you have identified your goal gathered all necessary information and weighed the consequences it is time to make a choice and actually execute your final decision.

step (5) Evaluate Your Decision once you have made your final decision and put it into action it is necessary to evaluate the decision and the steps you have taken to ensure that it works.

This final step is probably Just as important.
