

NAME : FAROOQ AHMED

ID : 14267

Question No : 2

A: My project is on controlling electrical devices using printer port.

1. System shall allow users through appreciate signals to switch the connected devices ON or OFF.
2. System shall allow users to interface with devices through entering the value of bit number.
3. Device to be switched with the system currently generate values and otherwise it should disabled to generate any current to give value.
4. system must be used as a switching devices where computer are available.
5. Although this system shall allow users to use this for also controlling traffic lights.
6. Allow users for power source controlling.