

adopt the opportunity.

The most important thing to on take right time in business is right decision.

An individual must as must right adapt learning take time opportunity and it at.

The most growing who are those either create a new opportunity or accept right opportunity at right time.

Do not try to copy others.

Apply for license permit and develop a unique E-commerce model.

Question No. 02

Dimensions of Entrepreneurship:

There are six dimensions of entrepreneurship.

- Strategic orientation.
- Commitment to opportunity.
- Commitment of Resources.
- Resource control.
- Management structure.
- Reward philosophy.

I prefer most is "commitment to opportunity".
The market is changing day by day and due to tough competition the organization or individual must customers know your product. if you don't know whom to sell to, you need a consistent brand image. once you have identified the image you want to project and the customer you are catering to, it's time to come up with product ideas. we will start with less investment in start.

Register / Finalize Your E-commerce Plan:

If we want to grow a successful business, we need to develop a brand. Choose a business name and register your company. There are legal protections and tax issues for incorporating.

universe choose a business name

business filled with hundreds of products
but no real focus.
you have to niche down
to run a profitable
e-commerce store.

Start this process
by identifying the leading companies already working with some.

The area absent
of competition indicates there is no market.

Pick up a product
category with a minimum 1000 keywords and focus on a niche that does well in social media.

Validate Target Market in Product Ideas:

Now you have identified
a niche and business model, you might be tempted to start hunting
for products to sell.

You cannot expect your

Question No. 01

As being an entrepreneur I am going to make an E-commerce startup I will try to develop unique strategy to enter and compete in the market.

First of all.

Research E-commerce model:

Starting an e-commerce business is not easy as large number of competitors are already present in the market.

Before you can decide on what to sell online, you need to understand different business models available.

START E-commerce Niche Research:

It annoy the customers when the e-commerce