

D. Basic Hand instruments.

→ Dental Hand instruments are made of metal alloy or plastic resin.

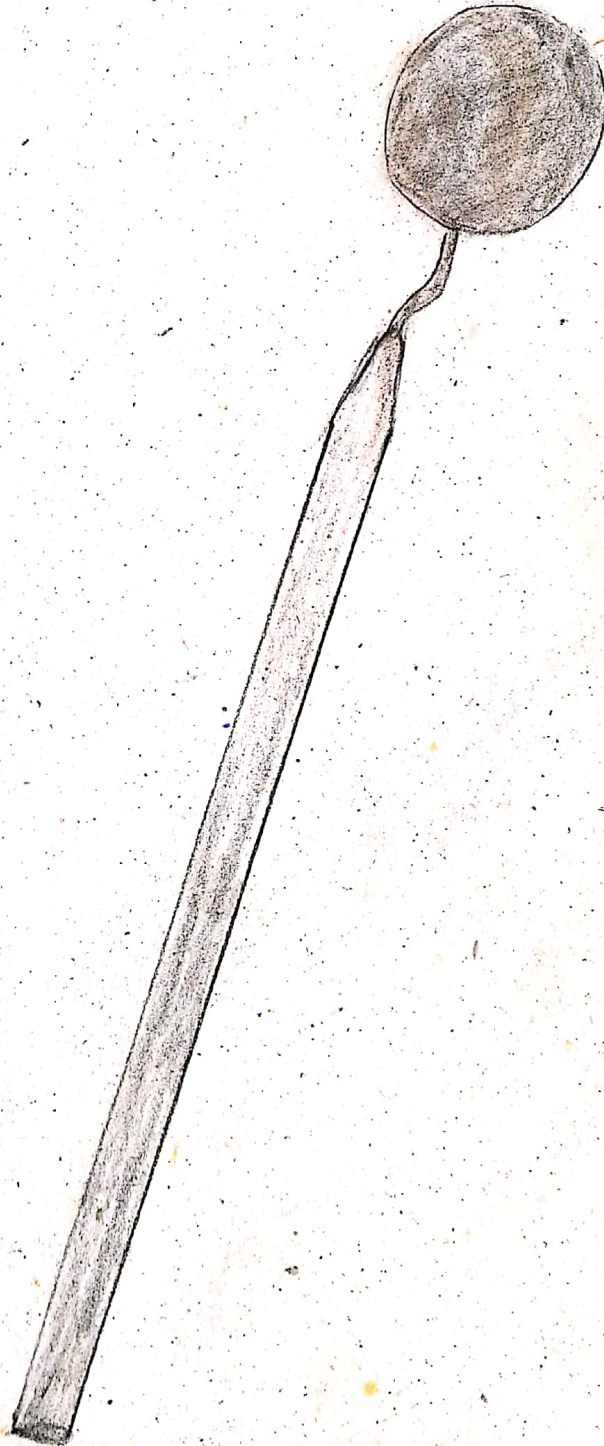

→ They are named according to their use.

→ Hand instrument may be single or double-ended.

② MOUTH MIRROR

- > To view tissue
- > Reflect light for better visibility
- > used to retract and protect tongue and cheek.

DENTAL EXPLORER.

- To examine tooth surface, caries, calculus.
- Twin, sharp, working end comes in different design.
- To check fit of margin restoration
- Evaluate root surface
- Remove Excess Materials.

COTTON PLIERS

→ To place and Remove small objects from the oral cavity.

→ it is used to retrieve materials from drawers and containers to avoid cross-contamination.

⑤ SALIVA EJECTOR TIP

- To remove saliva and maintain dry field using low-volume evacuation
- Disposable plastic design with attached tongue deflector.

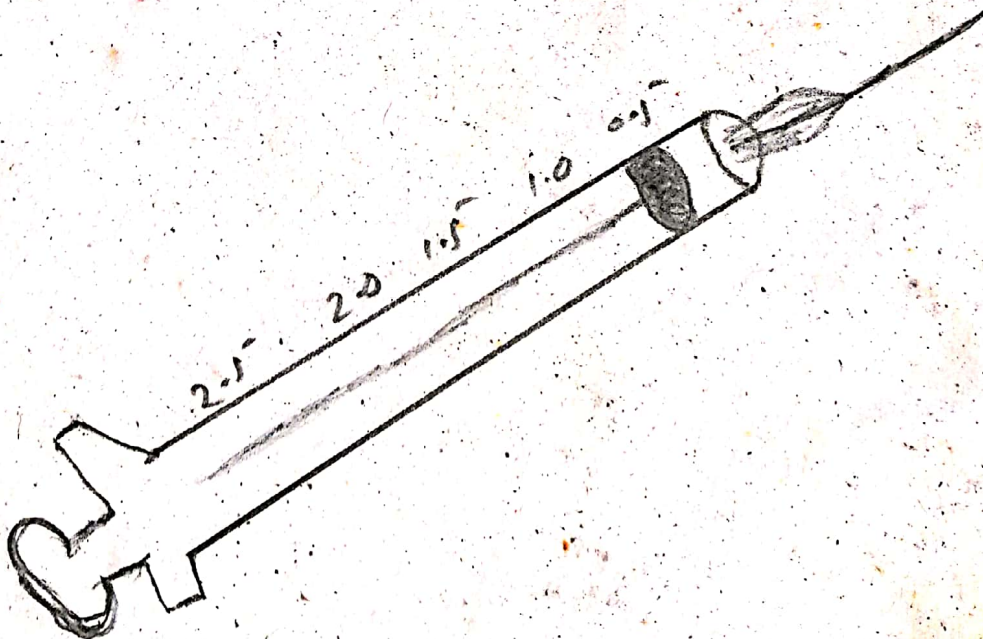

6) ANESTHETIC SYRINGE

→ To deliver local anesthetic to intraloral site.

→ Aspirating and non-aspirating.

7) DISPOSABLE SYRINGE

→ DENTAL FORCEPS

→ Removal of tooth from alveolar bone.

