QUESTION.3

Write a dialogue on a situation
related to corona virus
(COVID-19).

Sara: Hi Anna,
how are you?

Why do you look
so worried.

Anna: Hello, I

was just thinking about the new corona virus. I heard it's very dangerous

and as it's a

virus, everyone

can catch it.

Sara: I don't have much

information

about it. can you tell me?

Anna: Yes sure. I

just read about the deadly

which is in Wuhan, China.

Sara: Hahahah!

it is in china, Why are you worried?

Anna: It is in china but it can come to pakistan
and spread with in months or days

Sara:

Everything can happen anytime
but we can worry about everything.

Anna: No no you didn't understand. It can easily come to Pakistan.

Sara: Many viruses have come to Pakistan from other countries.

Anna: Yes yes but there is no cure for this virus (coronavir us)

Sara: Oh God!

That's scary. Is there a vaccine?

An injection by which i can protect myself
from coronavirus.

Anna: No no
vaccines can protect us from this deadly virus.

Sara: Not even a single vaccine
can kill this virus?

Anna: No! Many people died in china, but the death rate is less than SARS or MERS virus.

Sara: Then that's a relief.

Anna: We can't be sure, And death rates can increase if it spreads.

Sara: What does this corona virus do?

Anna: It's symptoms are almost the same as common flu, fever, runny

nose, sneezing
etc. In some cases it can cause pneumonia and bronchitis. It came to China
from animals,
now we also know that it can spread from human to human contact. In humans it spreads through contact with sick people through sneezing,

coughing and
nose discharge.

Sara: Hmm, so people who come in contact with sick people can get infected.

Anna: Yes,
especially older
people or people

with low
immunity.

Sara: But how is it treated if there is no
medicine for it.

Anna: The
doctor gives medicine to lower the fever

or pain that you feel.

Sara: But, What about the virus? What about the infection?

Anna: The infection goes away on its own most of the times.

Sara: Oh so you mean that medicines can only treat fever and pain and hope for the virus to go on its own.

Anna: yes,

researches is going on but right now that's how we treat
coronavirus.

Sara: why are these new viruses keep coming up every now and then.

Anna: we know a lot about this world sister yet we know very little.

Sara: you are right sister. Thank you for telling me about this corona virus. I will meet you

some other day.

Bye

Anna: you're welcome. Have a great day! Bye.
