LETTER: To an English friend giving him idea of life in village .

- Peshawar town.
- 26 June 2020.
- My dear friend,

I am writing this letter to give you an idea of my town where I live in. It's called Peshawar capital of Khyber phaktoon khwa , economic and cultural hub of Khyber.

With an influence from local steppe climate Peshawar features a hot semi-arid climate. It is one of the oldest city of Pakistan .The education system of very high level developing more and more many medical colleges are opened for higher education and many other facilities are provided.

The phaktoon nation people are very kind , co operative ,loving and caring and the most they are supportive. Peshawar is the most blessed with natural sceneries, have many lakes and tourist spots also known for its historical places.

I wish all these explanations make you curious to visit there and see it by yourself . This will be very honourable for me if you pay visit to my town and give you memorable tour of my town.

With lots of love and best wishes,
Your sincere friend,
Asma khan.
