A brief background of Constitutional History:

By the end of World War II, the British imperial government granted independence to its Indian colony and that matter the British Parliament enacted the Indian Independence Act 1947 - under the act the British crown relinquished its Sovereign Powers over India and transferred those powers to the newly established ministers of India and Pakistan on 14 August 1947. The Government of India Act 1935 with the Constituent of British India was amended to bring it in consonance with the aims and objective of independence as laid down
