

ID 16576

Subject : Business Finance and Financial mgt

Assignment No # 1

The finance industry continues to grow at exponential rates and brings with it many new career opportunities within the business world.

A career in finance can be exhilarating and monetarily rewarding but with so much information out there, it can often be difficult to get practical suggestions on how to start a financial career.

As business finance is an integral part of every industry, obtaining basic finance skills can significantly boost your career prospects.

No matter which sector you are ~~pursue~~ <sup>interested</sup> or in. Here are few reasons why you should pursue a course which will provide you with these finance skills

It is a universal field :-

Finance is an important part of every domain.

Every company needs to keep a record of its cash flow and financial activities. With adequate finance skills and relevant work experience, you can specialise in any given sector, from healthcare to construction.

It is a great domain for beginners :

Many of the starting positions in the field do not require specific skills, it is a great choice for beginners to build their careers.

It develops strong transferable skills :-

Modern finance role require analytical skills, problem solving skills, good observation and a strong intuition. A business finance trains

You in these important transferable skills which are valuable in a range of other sector.

It is used in every walk of daily life :-

Finance is not just about creating spreadsheet for your company the knowledge you gain from the job can also help you make financially sound decisions and investments in your personal life.

Business Finance guides you to make shrewd and prudent decisions about cashflow and longer-term funding strategies. As you develop skills and strategies for using the funds you have and for accessing additional capital

In this subject we learn first focus is to increase profit and minimize financial risk. Business finance covers a multitude of diverse occupations such as in global finance, budget analysis.

There are current job in finance for you to pursue after completing a course in the field.

You can also focus on certain areas, such as specialising in corporate finance or financial accounting - Here is a list of career in finance that might interest you:

General business managers

Financial manager

Budget analysts

Credit analysts

Financial analyst

Loan officers

Actuaries

Accountants

Business specialists

Financial risk manager

Insurance claims investigators

Personal financial advisers