ANS-01) Subject Learning:-

Before undergoing the subject learning I wanted to add my previous words regarding this subject. The News Reporting subject is interested and colorful, delighted subject because there is no harsh timetable and also have a friendly environment with teacher and students as well.

News Reporting was not a tough subject. There was no complex topic and all the topics was composed by easy words and language and I have learned about the basic of News Reporting and as well as get more about this subject.

I have learned that how to understand the nature of any story and it's all learned steps such as, gather of information, organized and present it in a journalistic language. Researching a good story is very complex work in a current flow of information but I also know that which story have a huge impact and covered the area.

I gathered and learned that the basic skills for writing for newspaper such as how to design news for newspapers, lead, introduction and keep the different angles of news story in my mind while making any story.

We have discussed about the value of news story and its elements, Timeliness, Proximity, celebrity etc. and as well as other topic we covered and I learned about that some are under below:

- 1) Beat and its types
- 2) Conflict reporting
- 3) Interpretive reporting
- 4) Investigative reporting etc.

The subject is fully covered the need of journalism students because it draw a light on the all aspects and sphere of the subject need and for journalism needs. I know about ^{how to} analyze any type of reporting and find out more about that.

in my study. This course developed my critical thinking and increased my knowledge as well. The course was interesting and I get better way of learning from this. I learned the different aspects and sides of Journalism ^{about} ~~in~~ print and electronic media which covered the required skills for journalism and give me a clue for further moving and learning.

I have learned about editorial writing,
Leads and its types and sources of news.

All the course which I have study it help ~~me~~ and provide me a variety of ways in Journalism. It show me the impact and influence of a story and enhance my study level that how do pick, research, organized and presents news stories, editorial writing articles, feature writing and column writing.

The course have a huge positive impact on my learning because it has vivid the picture of different aspects of Journalism. It's open the future ways and challenges which may be face to Journalist in their field and cleared my about that challenges in future. So the topics
