Q No 04 How do you avoid plagiarism?

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism means using someone else's word or ideas without properly crediting the original author. Sometimes plagiarism involves deliberately stealing someone's work, but often it happens accidentally, through carelessness or forgetfulness.

When you write an assignment, you build upon the work of others and use various sources for information and evidence. To avoid plagiarism, you need to correctly incorporate these sources into your text.

- * Keep track of the sources you consult in your research.
- * Paraphrase or quote from your sources (add your own ideas).
- * Credit the original author in an in-text citation and reference list.
- * Use a plagiarism checker before you submit assignment.

① Cite your Source :-

When alluding to an idea or working not your own add a citation in your writing that identifies the full name of the source. One thing cite your sources but that won't mean much if you or we don't do it correctly.

② Proofread :-

Proof read is a required and it will also help with our plagiarism

③ Quote :-

Another way to give credit is to use quotation when we are directly quoting someone

④ Paraphrase :-

There is the around using someone's work, but we want to still give credit where it due.

Plagiarism Checker :-

We use plagiarism checker because to help us to be safe our assignment from other.

It does not take much time to put our work through a checker just to be sure plagiarism tool can help you catch these issues before submitting the assignments.

Q no 05 How would to prepare yourself to Presentations:

Show your passion and connect with your Audience its hard to be reconnected and be your-self when you are nervous. The great presenter say that The most important thing is to connect with your audience and the best way to be that is be your passion to the subject shine through be honest wish the audience about where is importance to you and why it matters.

* Focus on your audience Needs:

Your presentation needs to be built around what your audience keep in minds. The question you should be able to communicate that key message very briefly.

* Smile and make Eye Contact with your audience :-

This sound is very easy but a surprisingly large number of presenters fail to do it. If you smile and make eye contact you are building support which helps the audience to connect with you, and your subject. it also help you a feel less nervous. because you are talking to individual not to a -great mass of unknown people.

* Start Strongly :-

The beginning of your presentation is crucial you need to grab your audience attention and hold it. They will give you a few minutes grace in which to entertain them before they start to switch off. if you recull so above waste that on explaining who you are start by entertaining them.

The END.
