What are the reasons why they formed this perception? Think about the underlying reasons.

What have you done to contribute to the development of this perception?

Do you think there are perceptual errors that contribute to this perception? Are they stereotyping? Are they engaging in selective perception?

Are you sure that your perception is the accurate one? What information do you have that makes your perceptions more valid than theirs?

Create an action plan about how you can change this perception.

ANSWER:

The one which I have note is that people think I am very rude and I am not helpful to other peoples.

1. The reason why people think about me is that I will tolerate any wrong person in my friend zone .I need true person whi is not mean.
2. When ever some one ask a help from me so I will clear say No to other person because I know very well that he can do his work and is asking me just for his enjoyment.
3. Yes, This is perpetual because I know each person in family and I know very well whi is right and who is wrong .so when I react they thought that I am very rude.

4. I think this is not valid perception because I have right to live freely and also I have right to contact person I want. people ythink I an rude and donot contact with that person,I know that oerson is wrong.
5. Plane may be is that I will clear mentioned that if some one comes in my friend zone so they all are right person. True friendship are from heart. Money, race etc doesnot matters.
