To the Health Department
Dear Sir,

As u know that there's an outbreak of COVID-19 in most of the countries of the world and our country is no different.It is spreading like wild fire.In our province(KPK)there are about 1276 cases reported with 74 reported casualties so far and this will increase if necessary actions are not taken in time.The spread rate of COVID-19 is high and the doctors and the other staff working in corona isolation wards are getting infected due to lack of protection gear (PPE's)which should be the first priority of the health Department because the staff might back off from providing services if not provided with the gear. c..
Civilians here have mixed opinions over the COVID outbreak,some are taking it quite seriously by using sanitizers and by wearing face masks and gloves,but they account for the minority.Due to lack of knowledge and some relegious personnel its is being made very hard to convince them about the severity of the situation and Health Department should take this into account as well by educating them through social media or by other means because this negligence may prove quite worrisome in near future.

There is the other problem people hiding their travel history and when these patients come to the hospital for co-morbidities there is a very high chance of them infecting other people around them.The Health Department should find out a way around this issue and solved it with us so that the spread can be minimised as much as possible.It cannot be stopped, we are well aware of that because we cannot just shut the country down as we are already in severe economical crises and shutting the whole country down will destroy our already weakened economy. So the best option in my opinion is that we control this by educating the people and providing the necessary equipment and foremost to the² personnel working on the frontline.
Sincerely

Moieez tariq

3. Describe a picture in your own words and suggest a title. (300 words)

The picture above shows a typical stereotypical office. The room has a desk in the center, with an office chair next to it, while there is a shelf in the corner. The desk is in the middle, having all sorts of office materials like a pen holder with two pens in it. An old phone, usually seen at offices, is on the desk. It has some folders and other papers which are needed in everyday routine. The shelf has three drawers containing various items, and a large globe sits on top of it. Apart from the objects, there are two people in the room; a middle-aged man wearing an expensive suit sitting on the chair behind the desk, who the office belongs to, and another younger man who appears to be his employee, wearing casual clothing. The "boss" appears to be in a bad mood, perhaps at something the "employee" did, and he is reprimanding him verbally. He is pointing his finger in a menacing and threatening way, and he is laid back in his chair with an unpleasant look on his face. Probably because he has given his employee a piece of work and it's been weeks, it's still not done yet. Now the boss has had enough, he called the employee to his office and seems to be giving him a hard time. On the other hand, the employee is covering up in a defensive manner, probably because he's asshamed and didn't get his job done. This time he seems to be out of excuses because its been weeks. Boss has called him to the office and asked him to show the files he's seen to be holding in his arms. Upon showing the files boss has lost his mind and became furious with the employee. He threatens him to fire him if he kept on doing that
