Before any attempt is made to describe the meaning of the word "Quran" the etymological base of the Arabic language needs a brief explanation first. The Arabic language is one of the richest languages in the world word containing many meanings and hidden depths, which have no comparison in the English language.

They describe the blessings the Quraish tribe were given to enjoy; might they be thankful to him and worship him the Lord of the Sacred House (Kaba) from which they obtained all their honour and high social status.

Faith in One God is the most important and fundamental principle.

It is the bedrock of Islam and the mainspring of its power. All other beliefs, commands and laws of Islam stand firm on this foundation. All of them receive strength from this source.

Take it away, and there is nothing left of Islam.
