" O you who believe! Raise not your voices in the presence of Allah's Messenger (S.A.W) nor speak aloud to him in talk as you speak loud to one another, lest your deeds may be rendered fruitless, while you perceive not "

BACKGROUND DESCRIPTION

Narrated Az-Zubair (R.A)

When a delegation from tribe of Tamim came to the Holy Prophet (S.A.W), Abu Baqr (R.A) suggested to the Holy prophet that al-Da'gā ibn Ma'bad (R.A) be sent to meet them and

Umar (R.A) said that al-Agra bin Qays (R.A) be sent instead of Abu Baqr (R.A) was irritated by Hazrat Umar (R.A)'s counter proposal. So he turned to Umar (R.A) and said; You only said that to contradict me. Umar (R.A) in turned replied that he did not do it to be contrary. The Messenger of Allah (S.A.W) said, A man may inadvertently speak a word pleasing to Allah because of which paradise is destined to him, and other may recklessly speak a word displeasing to Allah because of which he will be cast in the hellfire, further than the distance b/w heaven and the earth.

PREVENTION FROM SHIRK

"And those who invoke not any other ilah (god) along with Allah"
In this Ayah the description that Allah gives of his true servants is that they do not call any other ilah (god) besides him. Recall how we said that an ilah is anything that fills your heart and anything that your mind thoughts are always focused on. Since your ilah is always on your mind, you will naturally have hope in your ilah to save you from troubles and difficulties. So you put your all hopes in your ilah. And you call your ilah all the time. For a true muslim this ilah has to be only Allah. That is why Allah describes His true servants in this ayah. As those who do not call any other ilah besides Allah. They are the ones who dedicate their existence only to the service of Allah. So in times of difficulty and need they do not call on anyone except Allah. At another occasion, says Allah in the Holy Quran:

"Verily joining others in the worship with Allah is a great zoolm (wrong) indeed!" (Lugman: 13).

Question :- 3

Answer :- 3

" O mankind! We have created you from a male and a female, and I made you into nations and tribes, that you may know one another. Verily the most honourable of you with Allah is that (believer) who has Taqwa (Allah - consciousness, fearing Allah). Verily, Allah is All Knowing, All-aware".

Explanation:-

Islam came to finalize the equality of all humans. It came to a people who worshiped many gods, during a time when the blood of nobility was considered far superior to that of common man to a mindset that based society on all-pervasive social strata that could never be breached.

Under this modern operandi. The poor would always be poor and subservient to the rich until their death.

Contemporaneously; some were debating the true nature of women; did they have souls and if so, they were pure evil?

Finally Islam insisted that the only things that would benefit mankind on the day of judgement are sound belief and good deeds done solely for sake of Allah.
