In the ceremony there was a drama.

In this drama there was a great message about the girls education that how to support them. In the drama a girl named "Shandana" who wanted to get education. Her mother wanted to support her but brother didn't leave her to get education. Because in his view it very shameful for him to let his sister be educated. At last of this drama her brother realized that through education ^{we} can change the society. So he satisfied with his sister to achieve education. In order to treat their children ^{an} and society. And also ~~over~~ our Islam give the permission for women to achieve education.
