Ans

Saima and Faiza are both friends and are having a conversation about the pleasures and disadvantages of life in a university hostel. They plan to go to the movies and have something to eat after their discussion.

Saima: Hey! Faiza. How have you been ? Nice to meet you. Have you got your admissions finalized?

Faiza: Oh, hi Saima , I am good. Yes. It is final and now I am going to apply for a room in the hostel.

Saima: Why have you decided to live at a hostel? Any reason.

Faiza: My house is far away from the University. It takes me two hours to reach University.

Saima: I think you should not live at a hostel.

Faiza: Why?

Saima: You know there are all kinds of girls. Some of them may be too bad to live with.

Faiza: I couldn't understand your point. Did you mean that they are involved in criminal activities?

Saima: Yes, in other things too.

Faiza: What other things?

Saima: They may be addicted to smoking and drinking. There is a trend of ragging of juniors. So, you will not be able to live decently in such an environment.

Faiza: Have you ever lived at a hostel?

Saima: No. But I have heard a lot of such things about hostels.

Faiza: No my friend. You are actually right to an extent. There are bad girls everywhere in university. They are also in classrooms. We can decide where to keep ourselves among those bad boys.

Saima: But, if you get such type of girls as your room-fellows?

Faiza: There is a separate study hall in every hostel. None can disturb , if you are reading in that hall. You have the right to change the room if you are not satisfied with it.

Saima: How will you manage your foods and clothes washing?

Faiza: There is a hostel mess. Students are given nice food three times. Every hostel has a laundry, a tailoring shop, a tuck shop, fruit-shop, and a food-cafe. You can also buy anything from the Main Market of hostel areas.

Saima: But I have heard that there are strict check and balance on the movements of students.

Faiza: Of course! hostels have their rules and regulations. But actually, they make life at hostel easy and smooth.

Saima: What do you mean?

Faiza: There are timetables for entering and leaving the hostel. For example, you have to return to your room before 12 at midnight. You have to eat your lunch or dinner during a specific time. Punctuality and discipline is a good thing I think.

Saima: Nice! I had only heard bad things about a hostel. Now I can realize that if your house is too far from the campus, the hostel is the best place to live.

Faiza: That's why I am here to apply for the hostel.

Saima: Best of Luck. Let move to watch some goof movies and then we can eat.

Faiza: That's right. Let's go.
