

1

Name Syed Faheem Shah

I-D 14316

Semester 8th

Course Professional ethics

Submitted To Spv Imran Khan

Date 20/0/2020

Q 1

ANS 1

work ethic play a very important role to make a person a valuable asset to a professional organization

Every labour or person in market where it is become increasingly difficult to hire or even discover superstar talent.

work ethics is one of these qualities that usually get overlooked because of which people fail to understand its importance and how it can help one become a valuable assets in their industry of choice.

Few behaviours of good work ethic's person :->

1) punctuality

2) Focus

3) professionalism

4) personal improvement

Punctuality :->

This one holds a very high among necessary ethics at a workplace. The key to success is showing up by punctuality.

Employees need to schedule their travel, meeting deadline etc.

Focus :->

Staying focused at the task in hand is one of the greatest challenges employees seem to face today in today's world.

work environment especially when you have endless distractions around.

Professionalism :->

One of the most important qualities is how to be through professional.

It shows a great deal about how serious an employee treat his work to be.

It realizing the greater benefits of work.

Personal improvement :->

A good employee is one who update and upgrade himself striving to be better than yesterday.

A good employee improve himself day by day.

Q 2

Ans 2

Service Learning :->

Service learning refers to the typical academic programme in which students are actively in various community service.

In many universities service learning has been made a compulsory course for the student.

The service learning provide academic benefits ethical benefits and social benefits.

Academic benefits:->

The academic benefits include curricular activities that are taken by the student to bridge between their studies and practical application.

For example

In a sample of 397 adolescents studied who were flourishing reported superior grades

Ethical Benefits:->

Ethical benefits include the development of capability to cater the needs of a community or society.

Example :->

Ethical person is who recognize difference between right and wrong.

7

Social benefits:->

Social benefits
expenses of the student to various social problems to work with public interest and self confidence

For example

illness, unemployment
, sickness, having education.

Q3

Ans

Civic virtue :->

Civic virtue is morality or a standard of righteous behaviour in relationship to a citizen's involvement in society.

An individual may exhibit civic virtue by voting.

Civic education :->

Civic education mean all the processes that affects peoples beliefs, committed capability and action as member or prospective member of communities.

Civie education help in Building character:->

Educator's encourage students to develop morally and Pursuible opportunities to grow morally. Schools Creates Challenging-academic environment to helps students develop character

Educator's and all school staff are part of an ethical learning community and adhere to the same values that they teach.

Q 4

Ans 4

Various care strategies to cultivate the virtue of Respecting other's.

Self respect and respect for other's are the basic constituents of a typical moral conduct and discipline

That play an important factor in behavioural factor and life style.

Different strategies to cultivate the virtue of respecting other's.

Strategies of respect:->

Self respect:->

Self respect means important virtue in the field of engineering medicine and public life.

* Altruism :->

This refers to the act of doing good to others and thus avoiding harmful acts.

* Calm Composure :->

When individual become excited and agitated they must keep themselves in a relaxed and composed manner.

* Daring act :->

Life is a mixture of pleasure and sorrows with frequent repetition of failures and success.

* Good Humour :->

This act of having soft behaviour with the sense of good humour's would earn admiration and appreciation from others.

Q5

ANS

I have done my all work activities with time. I have made time table for my work. I have divided my time for different work.

For example

- * Prayer time
- * Home work time
- * Sport time
- * Sleeping time

We are all know that the prayers have own time.

5 time in days.

1) Home work time.

I did the home work ~~1:00~~ ~~1:15~~ in ~~1:00~~ ~~1:15~~ morning.

then I will take some rest.
then start my sports time for refreshment

After sports ~~at~~ when I will ~~see~~ ~~will~~
I am eat the meal
then I will go to sleep.

Time Table
work	Time
Prayer	with time to time
Home work	7am to 12pm and other Home activities
Rest	12pm - 4pm
Sport	4pm to 6:30
Sleep time	10:30 - 5am