Answer)

Translation:

O you who believe! Raise not your voices in the presence of Allah's Messenger (S.A.W)nor speak aloud to him in talk as you speak loud to one another,lest your deeds may be rendered fruitless ,while you perceive not."

Background description Explanation:

In this first section, the manners which the Muslims must observe before the Prophet (pbuh) have been highlighted. They have been warned to show respect to the Prophet (pbuh) and to give priority to his directives instead of asserting their own views. They must not raise their voice above his, and also must not address him as they address one another. The Almighty nurtures the seed of piety in only those hearts who have regard and respect for the Prophet (pbuh). Those who express their superiority because they think that they have done Allah and the Prophet (pbuh) a favour by accepting Islam should be aware that this attitude might render vain all their deeds whilst they may not even realize this loss.

On account of these prejudices man in every age has generally been discarding humanity and drawing around himself some small circles and regarding those born within those circles as his own people and those outside them as others. These circles have been drawn on the basis of accidental birth and not on rational and moral grounds. In some cases their basis is the accident of being born in a particular family, tribe, or race, and in some particular geographical region, or in a nation having a particular color or speaking a particular language.
