b. Parents are our first and most important teachers. Describe a specific valuable lesson from one of your parents

ESSAY :

This is the famous quote that the mother lap is the first institution of the child and it is absolutely right, because when we born we have unable to do anything.

Our mother teach us how to eat, how to move, how to laugh, how to react. When we enter in the phrase of growing our parents are our first teachers. They teach us about good and bad, right and wrong. Our parents look upon on our every act and when we do something wrong they immediately told us and teach us that this is a wrong act. They build our personality with high values.

I have once get a valuable lesson from my parents. In childhood when I was just 6 years old, I have playing with one of my friend. During the playing, I pushed my friend and frectured his leg. I ran away to home and nothing told to my parents, soon my parents know about my act and they gave me the lesson of my life. My parents told me that never fight with someone and nor gave harm to others, because every action has a reaction. When you pushing someone, they will push you too and your life will become miserable.

After that I didn't quarreled with anyone and my life is know very peaceful. Parents are playing very important role in making our personality.

c. The way I spend my lockdown during Covid-19..

3. Read and Summarize the following Passage in your own words . /10 Marks

Health' is a state of complete physical, social and mental well being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity. Health is thus a level of functional efficiency of living beings and a general condition of a persons mind, body and spirit, meaning it is free from illness, injury and pain. It is a resource of everyday life and a positive concept emphasizing physical capabilities.

Good health is a secret of every happy man. There is an old saying, 'Health is Wealth'. Staying healthy for children is vital for proper growth and development of mind and body as they need to focus in the class and fully participate in the activities on the field. Parents must take their children for medical check-up and learn from experts about their development in terms of height and weight, as it has a huge impact on their overall performance and efficiency. If you are strong and healthy, you can be a shining example to others and teach them how to achieve vibrant health.

Good health is a matter of great concern, to maintain it, healthy living and a disciplined life is a must. One of the best ways is to drink plenty of water as it reduces the risk of infection, keeps your skin healthy, reduces the risk of heart attack, burns body fat and regulates our body temperature. We should sleep well as it relaxes our body and reduces stress. We need to have a balanced diet and go for long, brisk walks. Our motto should be to keep our body clean in order to remain healthy. We must laugh more as laughing is a therapy and a secret of good health. The government should include integrated health programs into their public policies and control specific health problems.

SUMMARY :

Health is a greatest boon of ALLAH SWT among his blessings, as it is clearly stated from the famous proverb that "Health is wealth" no one can deny the significance of a good health in one's life, because when you are unhealthy you will not be satisfied from your life despite you have numberless blessings other than good health.

For maintaining a good and better health, You have to take greater take of your daily food and drinks. It should clean and free from any sort of dirt. Balance diet is very important for keeping a good health also drinking plentiful water is playing a care role in maintaining of a good health.
