b. Parents are our first and most important teachers. Describe a specific valuable lesson from one of your parents

Parents are our first and most important teacher

My parents are the most wonderful people in the world.

They play a monumental role in our physical, mental, emotional and overall personality development.

My parents are the ones who help me to distinguish between the right and wrong path.

They protect and save me and my brother from the evils of society.

They listen to all our problems patiently and help us in making decisions in life.

They buy us beautiful gifts during our birthdays and festivals.

My brother and I cannot imagine our lives without our parents.

My mother prepares delicious food for us and my father helps us in our studies regularly.

My parents always encourage us to participate in various indoor and outdoor games.

I love both my parents and pray to God for their well-being at all times.

Our parents teach us some of the basic etiquette and ethics of life from a young age so that we can grow up into honest and responsible people. They shower their blessings and fund our education so that we can grow up as educated and well-mannered individuals. At times, they live in scarcity and teach us to face difficult situations in life gallantly.

Parents work hard so that they can provide us with all the basic resources which are helpful for our overall development. They provide mental, emotional and physical support and help us in taking crucial decisions in our life. They face tough hardships in their lives and protect us from the vices of society.

c. The way I spend my lockdown during Covid-19.

3. Read and Summarize the following Passage in your own words . /10 Marks

Health' is a state of complete physical, social and mental well being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity. Health is thus a level of functional efficiency of living beings and a general condition of a persons mind, body and spirit, meaning it is free from illness, injury and pain. It is a resource of everyday life and a positive concept emphasizing physical capabilities.

Good health is a secret of every happy man. There is an old saying, 'Health is Wealth'. Staying healthy for children is vital for proper growth and development of mind and body as they need to focus in the class and fully participate in the activities on the field. Parents must take their children for medical check-up and learn from experts about their development in terms of height and weight, as it has a huge impact on their overall performance and efficiency. If you are strong and healthy, you can be a shining example to others and teach them how to achieve vibrant health.

Good health is a matter of great concern, to maintain it, healthy living and a disciplined life is a must. One of the best ways is to drink plenty of water as it reduces the risk of infection, keeps your skin healthy, reduces the risk of heart attack, burns body fat and regulates our body temperature. We should sleep well as it relaxes our body and reduces stress. We need to have a balanced diet and go for long, brisk walks. Our motto should be to keep our body clean in order to remain healthy. We must laugh more as laughing is a therapy and a secret of good health. The government should include integrated health programs into their public policies and control specific health problems.

Ans:-A person is considered healthy and substantial when he is physically and mentally stable. For leading a happy life, health is necessary. Being healthy helps in growth and development of children and help them in perusing their career. For healthy living one has to drink water bcoz it help to reduce the risk of infection and cure other ailments. Sleeping well also help to keep us healthy and it relax our body. Balance diet, exercise and laughing are also the secrets of living a healthy life. Govt should spread awareness about this and should include health programs into public policies.
