

Assignment

ID: 14376

Subject: (cases in HRM)

programme. MS (HR)

Submitted to

SIR DR Farooq Jam

---

---

2

Primerk

Q1. what did you especially like or dislike about article?

Ans. Primerk has initiated a program of CSR stance and ensure that its branding and meets the company value and and ethical standards. Primerk has organization which is able to respond in different ways. This include activities as wide ranging the two main things in this article or CSR and HER. The HER projects as key educational and kaps deal with all problems. The child labour in the south india by BRC pharma and investigation for a programme to be screened.

Q2. what are the some research ideas that you have formulated based on the research questions that you pondering?

Ans. The research ideas that I have formulated based on reading - (How primerk do there marketing) and other is the business and financial performance of mark stores. This ideas should focus on operation strategies and financial performance of primerk company.

Research

1. How successful is primark in terms of strength, weakness, opportunities and threats

2. How successful is primark profitability and demand.

Q3: what does your personal experience and when they are reading me?

Q5: Primark does style shoe outlets gives very good services to the customers to buy that product and to exchange.

primark outlets as they will give you much time to buy their products and the specific time and duration.

Q4: what are the some research ideas to pursue in pakistani center and that would allow us to connect mainstream literature?

Ans. Reserchers should focus on the main topics in which Pakistan is faced the main problems and to do research and try to find out new innovative ways of problems solving some research ideas in Pakistan:

child abuse, child marriage, poverty,
lack of awareness;

