Q1 what is the meaning of Zakat?
Explain its objectives?

ZAKAAT :-

Zakat literally means "to be clean" to grow, "to increase". Another meaning of Zakat is to remove impediments and help in growth and development.

Zakat purifies our wealth as it goes into the hands of rich to poor. Stabilizes economic condition of the society and ensure that each person is benefitted from the wealth.

Objectives Of Zakaat

The objective of zakat as emphasised in the Quran is a glorious objective of purification and upliftment following are some of the main objectives of Zakat.

To Reduce Love of Wealth

Love of wealth is an innate human tendency, and man does whatever he possibly can to acquire it. It is for this reason that Islam requires him to pay Zakat to purify his heart from selfishness and greed.

Love In the Community

paying zakat nurtures feelings of affection and harmony and fosters community cohesion. Because people generally have a disposition to like those who do them a good turn.

OBEYING ALLAH'S Command

paying Zakat is a vivid expression of true worship and total submission to Allah, when the wealthy pay Zakat they actually obey Allah's command. Recognising that all prosperity ultimately comes from Allah's favour and grace.

Establishment of Welfare Society

By paying Zakat the concept of social security and relative equality among members of society is realised. It creates a peaceful harmony among the lower class and upper class society.
